

E³UDRES² News | January 2025

Welcome to the 8th edition of the E³UDRES² Newsletter!

Discover what's new in the E³UDRES² Alliance as we share recent updates, upcoming events, and exciting activities that define our journey together. For further details, visit eudres.eu and join our dynamic community!

The E³UDRES² Team

Upcoming Events & Activities

Training Session on Online Language Courses

For the first time, E³UDRES² is hosting a training session on online language teaching. The session entitled "How to Create an Engaging Synchronous Language Learning Environment?" will take place on 23 January 2025. The E³UDRES² Alliance is inviting all interested teachers from E³UDRES² partners and associated universities to join this unique opportunity.

→ more

E³UDRES² Once Again Offers Online Language Courses for Students and Staff

E³UDRES² is again launching online language courses, promoting multilingualism and intercultural cooperation. Join the E³UDRES² Language courses, enhance your linguistic skills and cultural understanding, while earning ECTS or a certificate!

→ more

Data Unlocked: Mastering Data Analysis Methods and Storytelling

February 10 - February 14
Valmiera, Latvia

VIDZEME UNIVERSITY OF
APPLIED SCIENCES

- Lectures
- Seminars
- Discussions
- Workshops

Master Data Analysis with Erasmus+ Blended Intensive Program

Join the "Data Unlocked" program at Vidzeme UAS on February 13-14 for interactive workshops on data analysis, storytelling, and presentation skills. Open to all students from partner E³UDRES² institutions, the program offers hands-on experience with public health data to enhance research expertise.

→ more

ADC – Academic Development Conference 2025 – Registration

The first Academic Development Conference (ADC) will take place on 27 February 2025 at St. Pölten UAS. Teaching experts, instructional designers, and academic staff will explore key topics in higher education. Attend in person or online for a day of networking and learning.

→ more

Science Policy Conference in Portugal by Ent-r-e-novators

The Science Policy Conference by Ent-r-e-novators will be held in Portalegre on May 13th. The event will bring together professionals from science, policy, and research. Join in person or online to discuss science-for-policy ecosystems.

→ more

Discover the E³UDRES² Science Festivals in 2025: A Week of Innovation in Latvia

In 2025, various E³UDRES² cities will turn into vibrant locations for E³UDRES² Science Festivals. One of those engaging festivals will take place in Valmiera, Latvia, where Vidzeme UAS is inviting interested guests to join the event from 13-17 October 2025.

→ more

Past Events & Activities

E-Business Day at IPS: A Catalyst for Regional Innovation and Sustainable Development

The E-Business Day, held on January 24th at Polytechnic University of Setúbal (IPS), showcased creative solutions to regional challenges by IPS students. The event emphasizes innovation, entrepreneurship, and collaboration, promoting sustainable development and regional impact through academic partnerships.

→ more

E³UDRES² at UNESCO International Forum on the Futures of Education in the Republic of Korea

From 2 to 4 December 2024, Vidzeme UAS development vice-rector Iveta Putniņa attended the UNESCO International Forum in the Republic of Korea. The event, which focused on the different possible futures of education, posed questions such as whether education can cope with the fast changes in the technologies.

→ more

Polytechnic University of Setúbal Hosts E³UDRES² Stakeholders Meeting

From December 4th to 6th, 2024, the Polytechnic University of Setúbal hosted the "Open Innovation Hub Workshop" with stakeholders from Setúbal and Vidzeme regions. The event focused on strengthening collaboration between academia and industry, promoting innovation, and supporting sustainable regional development through smart specialization.

→ more

E³UDRES² One World Hackathon 2024: Innovating for a Sustainable Future

From December 11th to 12th, 2024, the E³UDRES² One World Hackathon united students, entrepreneurs, and mentors across Europe in a vibrant exchange of ideas and solutions. The event, held simultaneously in Portugal, the Netherlands, and Hungary, demonstrated the transformative power of collaboration in solving real-world problems.

→ more

Representing E³UDRES² at the Company Contact Fair Fulda UAS Campus

On 14 November, E³UDRES² had the chance to connect with students and regional companies at the Company Contact Fair 2024 hosted at Fulda University of Applied Sciences.

→ more

E³UDRES² Students Takes Prize in St. Pölten UAS Gender & Diversity Award 2024

In November 2024, St. Pölten University of Applied Sciences once again gave away the Gender & Diversity Award, aiming to honor outstanding final theses dealing with topics related to gender and diversity issues. For the second time, the award also included a designated E³UDRES² category.

→ more

E³UDRES² achieves Key Milestones in 2024

In November 2024, the E³UDRES² Executive Board met in Brussels to discuss the alliance's progress and future priorities. Key milestones, including the Micro-Credentials Framework, Competence Catalogue, and Research Strategy, were approved to enhance learning, research, and collaboration across partner institutions.

→ more

Report on European universities published by the European Commission

On 24 January 2025, the European Commission launched a report on the "Outcomes and Transformational Potential of the European Universities Initiative". The report highlights achievements, challenges, and policy recommendations, offering insights for alliances like E³UDRES² as we prepare for the upcoming Spring 2025 Summit in Enschede.

→ more

eudres.experience

Sustainable Solutions: E³UDRES² Hackathon Experience

Media Technology student Alina Kieweg joined the E³UDRES² Hackathon in Hungary to work on a sustainable protein supply. She helped develop an interactive platform with students from across Europe. In our interview, she shares her experience and role in the team.

→ more

Milan Wolf: New Chair of the E³UDRES² Student Board

Milan Wolf, a Public Administration student at Saxion University, is the new Chair of the E³UDRES² Student Executive Board. He shares his motivations, goals, and vision for student collaboration across Europe. Learn more about his journey and future plans.

→ more

Other Important Upcoming Events

I Living Labs: Spring 2025, IPS Spring School 2025, International Staff Week 2025, Bootcamp, Intensive I Living Labs and more...

more

#eudres

Campus-Platz 1 3100 St. Pölten

E³UDRES²

Co-funded by the European Union