

Introducing the jury member from UCLL, Belgium: Mrs. Soetkin Jehaes from the Flemish ministry of mobility

Soetkin Jehaes is an advisor of the Flemish minister of mobility Lydia Peeters. She advises the minister on European and international policy, clean power for transport and climate. Due to this position she is responsible for the rollout of charging infrastructure and shared mobility.

Mrs. Jehaes also is the first successor for the Flemish parliament for the Flemish liberal party. She is a mandatary in the special committee for social services in her hometown Alken.

Over the last 10 years she has been active in many boards of directors concerning education, climate, politics, human rights, history preservation, and much more. She also is or has been president and vice-president of numerous of these organisations.

Mrs. Jehaes holds Master's degree in Art History (KU Leuven) and an Advanced Master's degree in European and International Law (VUB). Her years of social engagement and her experience in the fields of politics, leadership, education, mobility, climate, etc. in combination with her background in law and history, make her well equipped to deal with any situation of any topic.